

This is a source sheet put together and approved by the Executive Board of The Knight News (2020-2021) to help writers recognize what sources are most relevant when it comes to including opinions and facts in an article.

NOTICE

- 1. Minimum amount of sources = 3 for an article is the standard
 - a. 2 is acceptable, but run it by your editor beforehand, otherwise you should always aim for 3.

Article Type	Recommended Source	Extra Notes
National News, International News	1. Political Science Professor 2. Urban Studies Professor 3. Sociology Professor 4. Students majoring in any of the above fields, or who are involved in the community and have significant standing. 5. English Professor
Arts & Entertainment	1. Any student, regardless of field 2. Professor from Media Studies, Theatre & Dance, English, Literature dept.	Consult with your Editor depending on the topic of the article, regarding recommended sources
QC News	1. Academic Dean 2. Provost 3. President 4. Vice Presidents for QC 5. Department Chair 6. Academic Senate Chair 7. PSC Chair 8. Any student, regardless of field (preferably one in a leadership role)	Consult with your Editor about the best source for your QC News article.
CUNY News	1. President 2. University Faculty Senate delegates 3. Academic Senate Chair 4. University Student Senate Chair (or Vice Chair)	Consult with your Editor about the best source for your CUNY News article.

Disclaimer: These are a recommended list of QC experts, however, if you are able to get a more relevant source for your article, go ahead. Note, do not limit yourself to the recommendations listed above.

OP-EDs	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Any student or faculty, in relevant fields 	Consult with your Editor depending on the topic of the article, regarding recommended sources
Sports	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Coaches, the QC Sports Administration 2. Robert Twible, Director for Athletics 3. Rick Risetto, Director of Athletic Communications
Science	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Professor of Biology, Chemistry, Biochemistry Physics, Earth & Environmental sciences, Psychology & Neuroscience 	Consult with your editor to determine which professor is the most appropriate for your article (e.g. biology for a coronavirus article).